

Reading:
How was your school trip

Free talk

Before reading:

Emma

Jimmy

How did they go there?

How did they feel about the trip?

While-reading:

What's the topic?

What main things (主要方面) do they both write about?

What's the type of these two articles?

While-reading:

people main things	Emma	Jimmy
the trip	exciting	terrible
the train	fast	hot, slow
the museum	interesting	big, boring
the gift shops and gifts	lovely, not expensive	expensive

What makes them feel different about the trip?
Were they on the same trip?

While-reading:

Compare and discuss which diary is better? why?

Joe's diary

June 15th

I think today's school trip is exciting. There is a gift shop in the museum. I am very happy to buy a Barbie doll for myself. I am very happy to see a 3-D show with friends, too. We have a guide to show us around. We go on the trip by train in the morning.

Checklist

Checklist	Evaluation
describe things with various adjectives
support ideas with reasons organize the diary in a logical way
use simple past tense to describe an experience

Volkswagen Automotive Company

Shanghai Auto
Museum

China Maritime Museum

The sports meeting

Post-reading:

We/... think today's ...was...

•

---

•

---

•

---

•

---

•

---

It was a(n) exciting/...day...

Assignment:

Write a diary on an experience with proper adjectives and reasons.

Thank you!