

Well done, Spotty!

Para.1-2 (introduction)

Who?
we: Spotty & Freckles
the Wilkins' children (three girls)
one-year-old twin brothers
Mrs. Wilkins

What are they doing?
We were walking along and saw the children.
The three girls were pushing a cart with the twins and a big doll in it.
Mrs. Wilkins went out and left the twins with the girls.

went upstairs

Para. 3-9 (complication)

What happened?

Spotty

woke up and found the house on fire;
started down and stumbled over a gray bunch;
took it but dropped it later for the weight
found what had happened.
ran down and knocked into a gray bunch again;
picked it up and set it down in the yard

Mr. Wilkins had a real baby in one hand and a doll in the other the three girls escaped but left a twin behind

Why did it happen?

conflict

resolution

The baby was saved by Spotty accidentally

Para 10-13 (conclusion/ending)

Spotty

was kissed by Mrs. Wilkins was praised
was rewarded with a large piece of hamburger
was happy